Since its inception in 1994, DWF has strived to cater to both the needs of specialty line and other insurers and to provide top tier legal services on a national level. In keeping with this goal, DWF has expanded from its Vancouver office and opened offices in Kelowna, British Columbia and Toronto, Ontario. We are pleased to announce that our newest office in Calgary, Alberta will open on October 1, 2015. With four offices across Canada, DWF is firmly committed to providing cost effective and results oriented services to its clients.

Joining the DWF team will be Cecilia Hoover and Judd Blitt.

Cecilia has a range of experience in litigation, including commercial litigation and insurance defence. Cecilia's insurance defence experience includes professional liability (civil and regulatory matters), errors & omissions, property loss, construction disputes, directors & officers liability, catastrophic bodily injury, occupiers liability, social host liability and coverage matters.

Cecilia is pragmatic and efficiently resolves claims for her clients. Cecilia appreciates the importance of understanding her clients' commercial interests and objectives as well as their underlying business. In matters requiring expert opinions, Cecilia has developed a 'niche' in working effectively with experts in various fields and has presented on this topic to other lawyers a number of times.

Judd has a strong civil and commercial litigation background to his practice, which encompasses a broad range of insurance related matters.

Judd Blitt

Having previously practiced at a prominent Calgary-based litigation boutique, Judd cultivated diverse litigation experience, including obtaining and executing extraordinary remedies such as Mareva Injunctions and Anton Piller Orders. Judd has appeared at all levels of court in Alberta.

Both Judd and Cecilia look forward to providing the same level of service that has made DWF a leading insurance defence firm in Canada.
