

Canada's National Specialty Insurance Firm

Dolden Wallace Folick LLP "Dolden" is a high performance law firm that practices insurance related litigation throughout Canada, with a focus on claims emanating from specialty lines of insurance. Our goal is to be the law firm of choice for insurers and their Canadian based litigation claims. Dolden has repeatedly been recognized as one of the top Insurance Defence firms in Canada, with offices in Vancouver, Kelowna, Calgary, Toronto, Guelph and Halifax.

We are committed to encouraging diversity, equity, and inclusion in all aspects of our work and for each partner, employee and client to feel included and respected.

We strive to attract, retain and promote employees who are the best at what they do and who reflect the diversity of the communities where we live and work, particularly for those who have been historically excluded from, and under-represented in, the practice of law.

We offer a dynamic and challenging work environment that provides you with the opportunity to make decisions and influence results. If you are interested in making your mark and contributing to the overall success of a team, this is a perfect time to apply.

Our firm continues to grow, so we are currently searching for a Cyber Insurance Lawyer to join our Toronto office. The successful candidate will work on a broad range of cyber and privacy matters, including data breaches, ransomware incidents, regulatory investigations, and related coverage and litigation issues.

Key Responsibilities:

- Advising insurers and insureds on cyber incidents, data breaches, and ransomware events
- Acting as breach counsel and managing breach response, including coordination with third party vendors
- Providing coverage advice under cyber and technology policies
- Advising on privacy, data protection, and regulatory compliance issues
- Working closely with a national team on complex, time-sensitive matters

The successful candidate will have:

- 3-5 years of experience in cyber, breach response, privacy and insurance coverage
- Strong understanding of Canadian privacy legislation and cyber risk
- Expertise in other specialty lines is an asset
- Ability to manage urgent and complex matters with professionalism and discretion
- Excellent analytical, drafting, and advocacy skills

This opportunity offers exposure to a wide range of cyber and privacy related matters with direct client interaction and responsibility. Dolden's cyber team is a collaborative environment with a national reach, and offers opportunities for professional growth in a quickly evolving practice area.

Please forward your application to careers@dolden.com